Imperial Proclamation

Concerning Baronial Court Titles

From this day forward, all Monarchs/Royal Heads of State of Baronies will assume titles worthy and in line of their true positions as Heads of State. All Baronies are considered Courts, thus their Monarchs should have titles that are in keeping with their positions and stations within our International Court System.

Thus, I, Queen Mother of the Americas, with all the authority and rights granted to me by our Founder, hereby proclaim that all Monarchs of Baronies will assume the titles of Czar and Czarina of their Empire. All existing Baronies may petition me for a change of their titles unless they wish to keep those they hold now.

Thus, this not only being the historic occasion of the celebration of our 70th Chapter in the International Court System of Canada, the United States, and Mexico, it is the historic crowning of our first Czar and Czarina of a Barony within our International Court System.

Signed by my hand on this day, January 12th, 2008.

Empress Nicole the Great
Queen Mother of the Americas
